The Weekly PBA News

Hi everyone! This week's news report is all about our fabulous visit from the famous author Peter J. Murray. We would like to say how fantastic the children of our academy were whilst sitting through his inspiring performance.

Rachel Waterhouse, a year 5 pupil, told us, "I really enjoyed meeting Peter J. Murray and I can't wait to finish reading his book about the horrific Viking beast – the Bonebreaker!"

Peter himself even said he loves working with Yorkshire schools because he was born in Rotherham. He thinks Pheasant Bank is a lovely school and the children themselves were exemplary. He was delighted so many children bought his books and he will be writing about his visit to PBA on his blog.

Joke of the Week:

Q: What did one Viking say to the other?

A: Can I 'axe' you a question?

We would like to thank all of the eagle-eyed pupils who noticed a typing error in last week's 'Joke of the Week'. As a result of this, we have now appointed Lily Van Den Tooren as our 'proof reader' to ensure this does not happen again.

Peter J. Murray is a retired teacher, from Rotherham, who is now an award winning author!

Our school shop will have a selection of Peter's books, signed posters and bookmarks.

Safeguarding

At Pheasant Bank Academy, the welfare of all our pupils is of great importance to us and we hope that parents are confident about their children's health and safety whilst in our Academy. We will always try to share any concerns with parents. However, there are times when we are legally obliged to share our concerns with other agencies, without first speaking to parents, or without the consent of parents. The safety and protection of our pupils is our most important concern and we wish to reassure you that any sharing of information is done with the children's best interest at heart. If you have any concerns about the welfare or safety of any child in our Academy, the Safeguarding leader is Miss Robinson and the Deputy

Safeguarding leader is Mr Houghton. Mrs Simm is also part of the Child Protection team so you can share any concerns you have with her. All members of the team can be contacted through the Academy office. The Academy has a duty to inform parents that there is a prohibition reporting or publishing details (including on social media) that could identify anyone who is
